Visit of Slovak Delegation to the United States DIST. 18 November 1946 PAGES 25X1A6a SUPPLEMENT 25X1X6 1. According to several reliable close personal and political friends of Dr. Jozef Lettrich, chairman of the Slovak Democratic Party, the latter departed for the United States despite Prime Minister Gottwald's telephonic attempt to persuade him to abandon the trip. Since Cottwald admitted that he had not notified the Slovsk American Organizations of this step, Lettrich refused to comply. Laco Novoměsky, Communist Commissioner According to of Education, left the delegation because of Communist opposition. It is, however, prevalently believed in Slovakia that the United States authorities refused to issue him a visa. are divided on the reasons for the exclusion of Father Andrei Paldan, Slovak Democrat, from the delegation; some claim that scclesisstical authorities were opposed, others that the Communists were against it. The real motive behind Lettrich's trip, however, is not to visit the Slovak American organizations but to establish contacts in the United States and gain experience. He is most anxious to meet President Truman and important leaders and politicians. 5. Lettrich is an advocate of Czechoslovak unity and a rising personfeel that his visit to the United States and Canada will consolidate his position in Slovakia and increase his authority in Czechoslovak Government Councils.
